

Dear Joseph,

I am writing from my new home, I built a shed on the edge of Aurum since I have been exiled. I think you would quite like this life, it's calm, quiet, I went back to the origins: no technology, only hands-on work. I feel like I am finally in touch again with the values that my family has passed on to me.

I was so lost after what happened with Ivar Lightendun. He made me re-evaluate my family's history and the things we have worked for in all these years.

I would love to catch up with you for a chat if you want to come around to the shore one of these days. I want to do something about the situation. I want to help Staghorn. I hope to see you soon.

Sincerely,
Ed

PS - Your kids come around here often, they certainly have your spirit. They're growing up so fast.
